

BOTH SIDES OF THE FENCE

Question — When mentally planning your future, do you think in terms of a career?

(Asked of graduating seniors at Holton Arms School here)

YES

MISS FLORENCE MARSHALL, 18, of Washington:

"I plan to major in languages at college and I hope, if I'm talented enough, to get a job in the State Department, or with the United Nations, or with the Central Intelligence Agency, as an interpreter or translator. This kind of work appeals to me because one meets not only a lot of Americans but people from other countries too. My sister got a Fulbright scholarship in comparative literature—she had to know two languages—and that always fascinated me. Of course, if the right guy comes along at the right time, I'll be happy to marry him."

Miss Boyle

Miss Marshall